The Quarterback

The quarterback lays back for punts That sail out on a line, While rival ends rush down the field

To drop across his spine;
If he should muff the spiral pill
They'll label him a hound,
And if he catches it his nose is slammed against the ground.

The Job I have I nothing great. It brings no lusty officers; And yet no large and alien feet Walk on my nock and ears; I know that better Jobs abound And yet, despite its lack, I'd rather turn out stuff like this Than be a quarterback.

RACE FOR ASTOR CUP

EBBETS FIELD (Brooklyn), Sept. 30 - The Philadelphias captured the lead in the National league pennant hunt this morning by defeating Brooklyn 7 to 2 Manager Robinson sent his star pitcher, Pfeffer, to the mound to check the Philadelphias' advance, but he was hammered hard and consistently and his service failed to baffle the visitors.

Luderus helped himself to two twobaggers and a home run. Brooklyn could do little with Rixey's delivery. The game was played on a wind swept field.

Any club in a major league that is peeling more than twenty consecutive victories is showing a combination of consistency and brilliancy, for any lapse would mean a kink in the chain.

You will also find among the Glant victims the names of the Phillies, who fell four times in a row just after they had beaten Brooklyn five straight. And the one who suffered the werst was no less a pitcher than G. C. Alexander himself. Detroit bunched hits off Weilman York, 296 at St. Louis Friday in two innings and won over the Browns bandily 4-1 That sunch deciding vesterday's battle was lacking on those important games Deoit played recently with the Boston less a pitcher than G. C. Alexander himrelf.

There isn't the slinhtest doubt but that the Giants of September, 1916, have been playing ball on a par with the power of the old Cubs or the once-feared Mackmen. They have been winning not through any strength in certain spots, but through any defense. They have had fine outflield play, finer infless play and fine pitching—plus a rugned, acorressive attack. Nothing short of the finest basebail will ever make any headway against this combination. Speed and power are always winning features when attached to a first-class defense, and the Giants have shown sufficient quantities of both leading ingredients to deserve their record fomp through the N. L. field. Frank Gotch will probably nevewrestle again, as he is well over 30 vears of age and the broken leg susained by him would be too much of a handican in a match with a good van, but had be ever met Joe Stecher. he match would have been worth go-ing miles to see Imagine two perfect ohysical specimens of manhood both Scarlett made Penn, a football leader some years ago. # RED SOX HAVE FLAG ALMOST

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The Boston Americans today appeared reasonably sure of being a contender in the world's BY FRANK G. MENKE.

It behaved Percy Haughton to quit his baselading and hop right back to fair fiverard. Had he delayed it too long its likely that the Crimson spiral would have been joited. It demonstrated pain by in its inaugural game that it neeled the attention of its head one h. Harvard's showing in the gam against Colby list Saturday was a distinct disappointment to the Cambridge rote & The beat it could do was to gar er 10 points compared with 35 against the game college a year ago. That proves conclusively that the Harvard backf id, as complified in the first listle of the year, lacks the necessary wallop, 'er prints was enough to beat Colby—but it word be enough to defeat some of the colfer Crimson foes.

Asserted itself at the University of Pennsyling its 32 to 9 victory over the sylvania. Its 32 to 9 victory over the vincing. Its 4 to 10 vincing. Its 4 to 10 vincing. Its 4 vincing Its 4 series but in the National league the sufcome was just as uncertain as it has been for several days, Brooklyn and Philadelphia being practically in a tie for first place. Brooklyn has the lead by a technical half game alhough in the percentage column Philadelphia by reason of having played fewer games, appears only a small fraction behind, the standing being Brocklyn 508 and Philadelphia 607. Boston practically is out of the race. Princeton ceta a real test in its open-ing clash today. It grapples with Holy Cross, one of the strongest "pilmin ry fees" in the cast. If Princeton wind dec sively it will demonstrate without doubt that the Tiger squad is very strong indeed. Should Princ ton win by double eader in prospect today and then New York goes to Brooklyn for four games while Philadelphia and Boston are playing a six game series. The Boston Americans was the only eam in either league which escaped the rain storm yesterday and the result put them one game nearer the championship.
